

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE AT A GLANCE

What is Professional Indemnity Insurance?

Anyone can make a mistake - but if your business is found liable for negligence, the costs can be financially devastating. Not only can it lead to an expensive lawsuit, but your business' hard earned reputation may be damaged as a result.

That's why professional indemnity insurance matters - help protecting you assets and brand if your advice or insurance cause a client to take legal action against you.

Who should consider it?

Professional indemnity insurance is mandatory in some industries, such as medicine, accounting, law and financial advisors - with the requirements differing from state to state.

But even in cases where it's not required by law, it's recommended for anyone who is providing professional services or advice in exchange for a fee - like, graphic designers, IT consultants and more. And regardless of your legal obligation, it's often a customer requirement that you have this cover in place.

"If you own a business, you can be liable for damages or injuries to another person or property ... consider professional indemnity insurance for your business if the likelihood of legal action is high"

Case Study

Michael is an engineer who designs the supporting foundations of a residential property. He makes an error with the site calculations – which leads to the slab cracking and a damage to the property of the owner. His company is liable for this loss, which could be anywhere between $150,000 up to the full value of the house.

But because Michael has professional indemnity insurance, he's covered for this amount – as well as any legal expenses if the matter goes to court.
